

CONSTITUTION & BYLAWS
of
The LEHIGH VALLEY AMATEUR RADIO CLUB INC.

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I

Name

Section 1. The name of our corporation shall be the Lehigh Valley Amateur Radio Club, a non-profit entity, which commenced existence on June 22, 1956 when its Articles of Incorporation was approved by the Secretary of State of Pennsylvania.

ARTICLE II

Purposes

Section 1. The purpose of this organization is to secure for ourselves the pleasures and benefits of fellowship with persons interested in amateur radio; to educate the public as to the benefits of amateur radio; to provide technical training classes for interested individuals; to support local charitable and beneficial organizations with their communications needs; to facilitate the exchange of information and general cooperation between members through technical forums; to promote radio knowledge, fraternalism and individual operating proficiency through regular monthly programs; to participate in emergency management nets, drills and real world events; and to so conduct club programs and activities as to advance the general interest, education and welfare of amateur radio in the greater Lehigh Valley area.

ARTICLE III

Membership

Section 1. This corporation shall not have capital stock, nor compensation for officers, but admit applicants to membership in the corporation upon such uniform conditions as may be prescribed in its Bylaws.

Section 2. Petition for membership is to be made from the floor of a general meeting by an active member on behalf of the interested party or guest. Approval shall be by majority vote on the petition or motion and membership shall be granted upon payment of dues.

Section 3. Voting. The voting rights of the members of the Association shall be equal and no member shall have more than one vote upon each matter submitted to a vote at a general meeting of the members. Only those holding active memberships shall vote.

Section 4. Duration of membership. Membership in this association may be terminated by death, voluntary withdrawal or as otherwise herein provided, in these bylaws. All rights, privileges, and interest of a member shall cease on the termination of membership. Any member may, by giving written notice of such intention, withdraw from membership.

Section 5. Suspension and expulsion. For cause and upon reasonable notice, any membership may be suspended or terminated. Sufficient cause for such suspension or termination of membership shall be violation of the Bylaws or any lawful rule or practice duly adopted by this organization, or any other conduct prejudicial to its interests. Suspension or expulsion shall be by majority vote of the board of governors.

Section 6. Property rights and Interests. The property rights and interests of each member in the Association shall be determined and fixed in the proportion that the patronage of each member shall bear to the total patronage of all the members with the Association. But, in determining property rights and interests, all amounts allocated to each patron or evidenced by certificates of any kind shall be excluded and, upon dissolution the equity interests of members and patrons shall be determined as provided in the bylaws. New members admitted to membership shall be entitled to share in the property of the Association in accordance with the foregoing general rule.

ARTICLE IV

DUES

Section 1. The annual dues for each member shall be determined by the Board of Governors and noted in an attachment to this document.

Section 2. Members who fail to renew their dues within sixty (60) days shall, without further notice, be dropped from the rolls and thereupon forfeit all rights and privileges of membership.

Section 3. All memberships will begin January 1st and end on December 31st of each its year.
